Polish troops and Offices in Danzig (Geansk)  VALUATION  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 27 December 1959 25X1  EFFERENCES  AGES 2  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  26  27  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of mi. Grumwaldaka (former Nauntstracese) and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (3 75/7 1/2).  27  unit of 1/2 An guns towed by half-rest motor valides leaving the berracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.5 on AA guns. The unit neved toward the afficial northeast of a Grumwaldake. The caldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these were by the german life force and had red collar patchas, 1.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the forcer German infantry berracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Recemicks and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several thms detectionness in the strength of nore than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine, mus, and morters. The target ranges of the unit were in the forcer forthification area of the Bischofeborg (Pickungia) fortherses. In Techolar 1951, a U-shaped building of the berracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three story building on the west side of Plac Talowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with arroord recommissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap lands and coller patches. The notor vehicles of the unit were in the building of the former Polish gymanium.  4. The Rischofeborg installation in the was coccuded by a Polish unit, The	Polish Troops and Offices in Danzig (Gdansk)  EVALUATION	materiales (1966) (1966
ALE OF CONTEND  ATE OF CONTEND	PLACE OBTAINED.  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 29 December 1959  EFERENCES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS
ALUATION PLACE OSTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OFTENNED  DATE PREPARED 22 December 1952 25X1  EFFERENCES  NES (NO. & TYPE)  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  This is UNEVALUATED Information  27  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  This is UNEVALUATED Information  27  This is UNEVALUATED Information  27  This is UNEVALUATED Information  28  This is UNEVALUATED Information  28  This is UNEVALUATED Information  29  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  26  EMARKS  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation was over uniformative (557) 4 (22), and A guart. The unit noved toward the airfield northeast of an Grummaldith. The soldiers on the prior movers were uniforms the color and cut of those were they the German Air Force and had red collar potches.  2. Prior to inid-October 1951, the forcer forman infuntry burnecks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rescuicks and U. Zablatuk was occupied by Polloh infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Polloh infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Polloh infantry in Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Polloh infantry in Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Polloh infantry in Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Polloh infantry in Several times detachments in the strength of more continued by Indianate and more continued by	ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 29 December 1959  EFERENCES  AGES 2 RES (NO. & TYPE)  EMARKS	CONTRACTOR
In Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of [7]; Grunwaldaka (former Mauutstresse) and Slowschiege in Danzig-Langdur (7 55/7 12).  unit of h AA gust towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 8,8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of a Grunwaldaka in the addiction on the prine movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Recardicks and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detechments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The Soldiers were equipped with rifles light machine guns, and marters. The target ranges of the unit were in the former Griffication area of the Rescholator (Miskupia) fortress. In Jetober 1951, a W-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fell of 1951, a motorized KW unit was quartered in a long thresstory building on the west side of Plac Tallowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored recommissance vehicles of the unit were in the former Folish gymnsium.  4. In the southwest section of the town was occuried by a Polish unit. The	DATE PREPARED 29 December 1959  FERENCES
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartored in a barracks installation at the intersection of mi. Grouweldaks (former Haustetrasse) and Slowschiego in Benzig-Languir (2 557 12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the berracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.3 cm AA guns. The unit neved toward the mirfield not theast of an Grumwaldaks. The candidors on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of those worm by the Serman Air Porce and had red coller patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry burracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Recamicks and ul. Zablikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times éctaclements in the strength of nore than 100 men each were soon leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with riffics, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit more in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Miskupia) fortress. In Scholar 1951, a Weshaped building of the berracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fell of 1951, a motorized KW unit was guartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Talowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paregraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with amored recommissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymmatum.  1. The southwest section of the town was occuried by a Polish unit. The	GES 2 (NO. & TYPE)	25 X 1
This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of Toligonomealdaka (former Hauntstrasse) and Slowschiego in Benzig-Langfuhr (75%/12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles Loaving the berracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.5 on AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of Toligonomer and any form movers were uniforms the color and cut of those worn by the German Air Force and had red collar potches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry berracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rezemicka and ul. Zebikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times Catachmets in the strength of nore than 100 men each were soon leaving the installation. The solidiers were equiped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortures.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Riskupia) fortress. In Jetber 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Talowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equiped with armored reconmissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical collage in the building of the former Polish gymaeium.  4. The Senthwest section of the town was occuried by a Polish unit. The	AGES 2 E.V. RES (NO. & TYPE)	WAR ON MAN TO SHARE WE ARREST COMMANDE AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE PARTY
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the inbersection of Mi.Grunwaldzka (former Hauntstrasse) and Sloweckiego in Denzig-langfulr (2.55/Y 12).  unit of M AA guns towed by Malf-track motor vehicles leaving the berracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.3 cm AA guns. The unit neved toward the airfield not theast of an Grunwaldzka. The soldiers on the princ movers were uniforms the color and cut of those worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry berracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detechments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equiped with rifles, light machine guns, and morters? The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Nischofsberg (Miskupia) fortwess. In Detober 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KW unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equiped with armored recommissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap lands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low shads south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.  the Rischofsberg installation in the southwest section of the town was occupied by a Polish unit, The	EMARKS
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of mi. Grunwaldzka (former Manutstrasse) and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (755/7 k2).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the berracks installation, The guns were similar to the German 3,3 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the mirfield northeast of an Grunwaldska. The coldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of those worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry berracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Riskupia) fortrees. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the berracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KW unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored recommissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and coller patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.		Material responsibility of the control of the contr
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of of the former Mauntstrasse) and Slowackiego in Danzig-langfuhr (7 55/7 42).  unit of h AA gust towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the berracks installation. The gust were similar to the German 3.3 cm AA gurs. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of of Grunwaldeke. The coldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of those worn by the German Air Force and had red coller potches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry berracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Resemicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifiles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Riskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the berracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KW unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored recommissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.  the Rischofsborg installation in the southwest section of the town was occupied by a Polish unit. The		PETRAN SA SALAHAN ANNAN MANAN NASAN MANANSAN MANANSAN MANANSAN SALAH
1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of [1]. Grunwaldska (former Nauntotresse) and Sloweckiego in Banzig-langfuhr (2 55/1 12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.3 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the mirfield northeast of an Grunwaldska. The soldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Razamicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles light machine guns, and morters. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Bischofsberg (Riskupia) fortress. In Detober 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KRV unit was quartered in a long threestory building on the west side of Plac Nalowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.		CONTRACTOR SUCCESSION PROPERTY OF THE SUCCESSION
1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of it. Grunwaldaka (former Nauntstrasse) and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (2 55/7 h2).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.3 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwaldaka. The soldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infuntry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detackments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Bischofsberg (Biskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KHV unit was quartered in a long threestory building on the west side of Plac Talowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southcast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.
1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of [17]. Grunwaldzka (former Mauntstrasse) and Slowackiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/T 42).  a unit of 4 AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwalduke. The soldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red coller potchas.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detechments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles light machine guns, and morters. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Riskupia) fortress. In Detober 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long threestory building on the west side of Plac Valowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.  the Rischofsborg installation in the southwest section of the town was occuried by a Polish unit. The
1. Prior to August 1951, a Polish AAA unit was quartered in a barracks installation at the intersection of [17]. Grunwaldzka (former Mauntstrasse) and Slowackiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/T 42).  a unit of 4 AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 3.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwalduke. The soldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red coller potchas.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detechments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles light machine guns, and morters. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Riskupia) fortress. In Detober 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long threestory building on the west side of Plac Valowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.  the Rischofsborg installation in the southwest section of the town was occuried by a Polish unit. The		r PARTITEMENT AND AND PROGRAMMENT PROMISE AND AND COMMENTAL AND AND COMMENTAL AND COMM
installation at the intersection of note of the common decided and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/Y 12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 8.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwaldeka. The coldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detaclements in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Biskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.		, 20 installation at the intersection of note of the common decided and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/Y 12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 8.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwaldeka. The coldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detaclements in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Biskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.
installation at the intersection of note of the common decided and Sloweckiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/Y 12).  unit of h AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barracks installation. The guns were similar to the German 8.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwaldeka. The coldiers on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by the German Air Force and had red collar patches.  2. Prior to mid-October 1951, the former German infantry barracks in the southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detaclements in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Rischofsberg (Biskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Malowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.
southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk was occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detachments in the strength of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The soldiers were equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Bischofsberg (Biskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barracks installation was still in ruins.  3. In the fall of 1951, a motorized KEV unit was quartered in a long three-story building on the west side of Plac Walowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  The Bischofsberg installation in the southwest section of the town was occupied by a Polish unit. The	installation at the intersection of ni. Grunwaldzka (former Hauptstrand Slowackiego in Danzig-Langfuhr (Q 55/Y 42).  unit of 4 AA guns towed by half-track motor vehicles leaving the barninstallation. The guns were similar to the German 8.8 cm AA guns. The unit moved toward the airfield northeast of an Grunwaldzka. The sole on the prime movers were uniforms the color and cut of these worn by	a 29 racks 10 Hiers story building on the west side of Plac Walowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this unit, which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, had dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the unit were in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a technical college in the building of the former Polish gymnasium.  4.	southern section of the town between ul. Rzeznicka and ul. Zabikruk we occupied by Polish infantry. Several times detachments in the strengt of more than 100 men each were seen leaving the installation. The solver equipped with rifles, light machine guns, and mortars. The target ranges of the unit were in the former fortification area of the Riscl (Riskupia) fortress. In October 1951, a U-shaped building of the barn	as h ldiers t nofsbann in the southwest section of the town was occupied by a Polish unit. The	story building on the west side of Plac Walowy, south-southwest of the barracks installation mentioned in paragraph 2. The soldiers of this which was equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles and trucks, he dark blue cap bands and collar patches. The motor vehicles of the universe in long low sheds south of the quarters, and southeast of a tech	no unit, mad t
The second secon

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL

	CONCIDENTIAL	25 X ′
	- 2 -
5.	Prior to October 1951, billets in the southeastern section of the town on the corner of ul. Elblaska and Lakova (former Weidengasse) were occupied by KEN officers who served in the former Reiterkaserne southeast of these billets.3	•
6.	The former Reiterkaserne at the east end of u1. Ulanska (former Reitergasse) was occupied by a KEV unit. Two multi-story brick buildings, sheds and stables were seen in the barracks area.
7.	A UB office and quarters for UB personnel with families were in a three- or four-story former insurance building on the east side of ul. Okopowa and the west side of ul. Kladki. A villa on the west side of ul. Okopowa housed the interrogation office. The UB office was headed by a Polish major. Soldiers with black velvet collar patches and black cap bands and others with blue service color were seen in the building. A few soldiers had red collar patches. Groups of young soldiers with red service color and the letter B on the epaulets were repeatedly seen entering the building. They had brief cases and made an especially favorable impression.  they were UB cadets of the UB	25X
•	officers school in Danzig-Langfuhr.	25X1
8.	Prior to October 1951, the main district command for the Danzig district was at the intersection of ul. Grunwaldzka and ul. Morska in Langfuhr.	20/(1
9.	Unidentified military quarters and depots were in the southern section of the Narwik Cantonment which had been erected under German administration and, in its north section, housed civil offices.
10.	In the spring of 1951, persons of the 1931 class were registered and, soon after, inducted in Danzig and transported to Dirschau (Tezew, Q 55/D 59). Politically reliable persons, without police record, of the 1931 and 1932 classes were registered for KBW and WOP at the same time and also left soon after.  WOP draftees  Were trained in Hirschberg (Jelenia Cora, 0 51/G 63). The service period was two years for troops in general, three years for technical troops, and four years for air force personnel.	25X1 25X1
1.	Comment. The installation mentioned is a large barracks installation which appears to be occupied by various units. In November 1951, a resettler woman reported the Kaszubski Infantry Regiment as being quartered in the same barracks installation.	25X <sup>2</sup>
2.	Comment. The barracks installation is the former Wiebenkaserne.	25 X ′
3.	Comment. The 13th KBV Regt which is carried in Danzig, seems to be quartered in this barracks installation.
10	Comment. The bulk of the 1931 class was inducted in the spring of 1951. Recruits for the security forces are usually inducted in summer. The Defense Act of 4 February 1950 provides service terms of two years for the army, three years for the navy and air forces and twenty-seven months for the security forces.	25X1

CONFIDENTIAL.